	Yuvaan	Relationships	Yuvaan has been very kind to our two newest members of 4E this week, making sure that they understand what we do at Park Hill and helping them when they need it. Thank you Yuvaan!
	Evie	1 child for Skills Builder merit (no comment needed) - Adapting
4F	Khloe and Leandra	Resourceful	Khloe made an incredible poster about Ancient Egypt at home, complete with 3D pyramid! She shared it with the class in show and tell and we were all very impressed. Well done for extending your learning at home Khloe! Leandra created a brilliant picture of Pharaoh Tutenkhamun at home too which we all enjoyed seeing. Thank you Leandra!
	Nathan	Reflective	Nathan is a super responsible, polite and kind member of 4F. He is always the first to be ready when the teacher gives instructions. He also really worked on his presentation today when redrafting and Ms Fairtlough was really proud of this. Well done!
	Ali	1 child for Skills Builder merit (no comment needed) - Adapting
4H	Willow	All 4 R's	Willow is continuously being a class example. She is always being responsible and reflective during lessons. Willow is actively participating and always trying hard in lessons. Well done extending your learning Willow!
	Matthew	All 4 R's	Matthew demonstrated all 4 R's this week. During think pair share he is always participating with his group and sharing his knowledge to the whole class. Well done Matthew!
	Shreya	1 child for Skills Builder merit (no comment needed) - Adapting
5I	Tomi and Suhavi	Relationships	These children always work well together during paired work and 'think pair share'. They support one another brilliantly and ensure the other person is following the learning too.
	Mia and Divyya	Resourceful	Mia went home after listening to the Black History month assembly and completed an informative brochure about the importance of black history and how she is passionate about it. Divyaa went home and learnt about Roman Numerals just in time for our Roman numeral lesson today and knew how to read the digits very well.
