Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3D	Gabriel	Do be kind	For consistently showing kindness to friends and always going above and beyond to check on others. Your thoughtful actions have been noticed not just by your classmates, but by other teachers too. Well done for being such a caring and considerate member of our school!
3S	Asher	Do concentrate	Asher has been focusing really well on his learning lately. He is staying on task, giving his best effort, and has written interesting sentences in his narrative on Stone Age Boy . Great job, Asher — keep this up!
	Shirom	Do concentrate	Shirom has really improved his focus in lessons.He is now starting his work quicker, and is showing great determination. Fantastic effort, Shirom — keep it going!
3U	Ivor	5Rs	Ivor has given some amazing contributions in class this week and was super helpful to Mr Nicolaou by tidying up the Netballs at the end of PE. Well done, Ivor - keep up the amazing work!
	Maite	Resilience	Maite showed great resilience this week, particularly when completing her GPS assessment using Google Translate. Very well done, Maite - keep up the hard work!
4E	Rome	Reflective	Rome regularly learns lots of interesting information outside of school which he often shares with the class or Miss Emery. Thank you for being such a curious learner, Rome.
	Enes	Relationships	Enes has developed really strong friendships within the class and is showing more kindness to support his peers. Well done Enes.
4F	Arvin	Resilience, resourceful	Arvin deserves this merit for getting 10/10 on his spelling test over 4 weeks in a row! Well done for practicing so much Arvin, you're setting a brilliant example for everyone. You also are always the first to follow any teacher's instruction. Thank you Arvin, we appreciate you

	Ivy	ALL 5 Rs	Every single day Ivy follows the rules and she deserves to be celebrated for this! She also stayed to help Ms Fairtlough with the year 5 sewing project in her lunch time and we are really grateful to her. Thank you Ivy for being the superstar you are
4H	Siddanth	Reflective	Siddanth is doing so well in his learning and continues to improve his work. He listens carefully to feedback and reflects thoughtfully on how he can make his work even better. Well done!
	Sahasra	Relationships, respectful	During lessons, Sahasra is always willing to help and makes sure everyone understands the learning. She is also eager to volunteer and happily assists Miss Hardy by passing out materials. Well done!
5I	Sachita	Resourceful	It was wonderful to see Sachita inspired by our DT lesson chocolate making. She demonstrated excellent curiosity by extending her learning outside the classroom. It was a joy to taste her homemade chocolate; you should be very proud of your culinary skills! It was choc-tastic GET IT :)
	Stella	Resilient	Stella has written a fantastic story this week. She demonstrated great flair by using ambitious vocabulary and used inverted commas correctly to move the story along. I was particularly proud of how she responded to teacher feedback to further her writing. Well done!
	Luke	Reflective	Luke has taken on teacher feedback really well this term . He has been able to use this explicitly in his writing this week. He has written a fantastic persuasive letter to IKEA for why cotton wool is the best material to build a chair out of. He has included modal verbs, adjectives and scientific language brilliantly .
5K	Manisha	All 5R's	Manisha receives her merit for consistently being polite and respectful to all adults and her peers. She shows great resilience and resourcefulness in her learning at all times. Well done Manisha!
	Burhan	Resilience	Burhan is awarded this merit for the excellent effort he has shown in all his assessments this week. He has worked with determination and maintained a consistently positive attitude. Well done, Burhan!

5M	Himani	All 5 Rs	Himani has shown fantastic effort in her learning, especially in her writing. Himani has worked incredibly shown respect and relationship skills when working with her new table partner, taking turns and sharing thoughts and ideas. She has also volunteered her wonderful sewing skills to help in Miss F's art project. She is a true role model. Well done Himani!
	Uzi	Resourceful, Relationships and Respect	Uzi continues to show respect to his learning, peers and adults every single week. Uzi is polite, takes initiative and has been an incredible digital leader, ensuring all the devices in Year 5 are put away and also plugged in even if it takes up some of his break and lunch time. Thank you for all your hard work Uzi. Well done!
6A	Aron	Resourceful	For demonstrating creativity and technical skill in computing when designing his own website. Aron came up with an innovative idea and a catchy slogan to go alongside it too! Well done!
	Ritik	Respectful	For his fantastic use of oracy skills during our class discussion about the effects of apartheid in South Africa and around the world. Ritik spoke with maturity and empathy contributing meaningfully to our learning.
6H	Karthik and Reid	Reflective	Karthik and Reid are making every effort to improve their writing. They have reflected on feedback and targets they have been given and have made excellent progress. Well done!
6M	Ritika	All 5Rs	Ritika's respectful behaviour and focused commitment to her studies is excellent. We especially appreciate how readily you assist your classmates with their learning. You are a role model in every sense of the word—please continue this fantastic effort.
