Dear Parents and Carers,

Trust you and your family are well and keeping safe. Thank you for working with us in so many ways throughout the pandemic.

The government has now released it's September guidance for schools, which you can read in full when you click on the link below:

Actions for schools during the coronavirus outbreak

We are delighted that the proposals confirm that schools can welcome back all pupils in September, which has been at the heart of our planning. As expected, the guidance is very detailed and will take a bit of time to digest. We will use it to support us in updating our plans as the whole school returns in September.

We appreciate that for many the guidance will be welcomed, but recognise that for others it may cause feelings of anxiety or worry. Welcoming all pupils back into school will mean implications for ensuring the health and safety of our school community, however we are confident that we will be able to manage risks carefully and safely, as has been our approach since March when the Prime Minister announced school closure for all pupils but the critical workers' children.

We look forward to having our whole school community back together and will communicate our plans for September as soon as possible.

Once again, thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Ann Pratt - Headteacher, Park Hill Junior School
