Home tutor (Qualified teacher)

Career Opportunity

We are looking for a home tutor to provide 1:1 tuition for pupils who will benefit from this because they have been identified as needing this intervention to bridge gaps formed from the Pandemic school closure. Tutoring will be provided remotely or in the home depending on the requirements of the family.

Becoming part of the team at Park Hill Junior School you have the advantage of joining a pioneering group of schools where your career can progress and you will benefit from professional development opportunities within Folio Education Trust: <http://www.folio-education.co.uk/>. This is local collaboration of schools offering access to high calibre CPD which contributes to the recognised quality of learning within our schools.

You should be able to...

- Be flexible in your approach to learning
- Be an excellent teacher with a creative approach.
- Committed to achieving the best outcomes for children
- An experienced teacher with high expectations of all pupils
- A hard worker whose planning and feedback is thorough
- Have passion, enthusiasm and excellent communications skills
- Have high levels of self-motivation
- Be able to show patience and understanding in difficult situations

You will be expected to...

- Provide a weekly report for the school
- have access to a fully functioning remote equipment and internet connection
- have completed and read the school's safeguarding procedures
- hold a current DBS certificate
- Operate a safe and fun working environment
